

LIFT Community Action Agency Frequently Asked Questions

What is LIFT Community Action Agency and who does the organization serve?

LIFT Community Action Agency offers social services and programs for low-income individuals and families living in Choctaw, McCurtain, and Pushmataha counties in southeast Oklahoma.

What services does LIFT CAA offer?

LIFT's services include early childhood education, nutrition training, substance abuse prevention, housing assistance, financial resources and lending, technical and management assistance, volunteering, and more. Visit www.liftca.org/services for a list of LIFT CAA's programs and services.

What makes LIFT CAA stand apart from other organizations?

LIFT employees are driven by compassion and empathy, delivering superior services and programs in an unwavering effort to free generations of people from poverty. In doing so, lives are improved and Oklahomans achieve self-sufficiency.